CENTRALIAN '67

VOLUME-XII

THE PANTH

Alma Mater

To our Alma Mater
Ever dear, We raise
This song of praise,
And we'll oft' recall
As best of all,
Our happy high school days.
Forever,
Our banner,
Of green and white
Will fly.
Till the Hall of Fame
Will claim the name
Of Central Dauphin High.

CENTRAL DAUPHIN HIGH SCHOOL
HARRISBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

Foreword

This year the editors of the Centralian present to you the twelfth volume of the Centralian for 1967. The theme chosen for this issue is the senior class flower, the yellow rose. This theme will be carried out on the division pages with each stage of the rose representing each section. The first stage of the rose, the bud, is represented by the Faculty and Administration. The senior class is represented by the rose in full bloom to designate the ending of three years at Central Dauphin.

The cover for this issue of the Centralian is something new and different. We are also proud to relate that a member of the art staff, Marcia Sgrignoli, designed the lettering especially for the Centralian. After adapting the lettering, the art staff set to work and came out with a totally bold and modern type of yearbook cover.

The editors of the Centralian hope that each time this yearbook is opened the memories of '67 will unfold before you.

English Department

One of the finest departments in Central Dauphin is the English Department. English is required of all students enrolled at Central Dauphin. There are also courses from which the student can choose for their own edification. These courses include: creative writing, public speaking, dramatic arts, and advanced English. These courses are designed to offer a challenge and to express ourselves in the use of the English Language.

The Sophomore class of Central Dauphin High School has completed a very successful year. The officers elected were President, Ethan Lock; Vice President, Lynn Stumpf; Secretary, Nadine Klineyoung; and Historian, Gale Milano. Assisting the class as their advisor was Mr. John Kreamer. Among the many activities of the Sophomore class this year was a candy sale which showed a profit of approximately four hundred dollars. They also sold class of '69 charms to their fellow classmates. The class planned a spring dance that was especially for Sophomores.

With spring came the end of the school year. The Sophomore class is looking forward to an excellent Junior year and a bright future.

Another exciting year has been completed by the Junior Class of Central Dauphin High School. As the Juniors returned for another year, they were caught up in many activities for the class. One of the main events was the election of class officers. The results of the election were President, George Irwin; Vice President, Stan Snyder; Secretary, JoAnn Troutman; Treasurer, JoAnn Pelligrini; and Historian, Sue Briggum. The class advisor was Mr. Billman.

A highlight of the year was the Junior Class play, "The Fantasticks," which was presented December 19, 1966. The play was a huge success. The money from the play was used to sponsor another highlight the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the Zembo Mosque, May 19, 1967. The achievements of the class of '68 suggests that the year to come will prove to be a successful one.

It must have been a tough problem with all of these Juniors collaborating for the correct answer.

The Homecoming Court for 1966 were Cathy Cassidy, Diane Johnson, Alice Smith; queen, Donna Gardner, and Debbie Adams.

Friday, November 4, 1966, was the first day of this year's homecoming weekend. At our football game that night, Queen Alice Smith was crowned, along with East's queen. The combined bands of both schools and the courts from the Rival schools competed in the pageantry of halftime.

The following evening found the queens back at the school, this time, for the dance. Combined with East, as are all the other Homecoming activities, the dance was a great success.

Last year's queen, Denise Hammacker crowns Queen Alice Smith at the football game while Charles Harvey, Diane Johnson, and Ted Knauss look on.

Youth Festival

The Teen Queens are presented at the 12th Annual Youth Festival.

November 25, 1966, a rainy Friday night, found thousands of area teenagers gathering at the Zembo Mosque for an evening of dancing, entertainment, and socializing; The Youth Festival. Months of planning by a teen committee, with our own Cathy Cassidy as corresponding secretary, preceeded this event.

Entertainment was provided by students, the orchestras of Tom Darlington and Red McCarthy, and the Highwaymen. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of Teen Queens from twenty schools. Our representative to this group was Miss Karen Curtis.

Our lovely Queen, Karen Curtis and her escort, Kenny Adams, enjoy the splendor of the Mosque.

The cast of the Fantasticks was (sitting on the floor) Ron Grove, Jim Baynham; (sitting on the platform) Ellyn Smith, Phil Borosque, Zoe Pittman, Tony Sachet; (standing) Steve Brown, and Brian Harper.

The Fantasticks

December 17 was the date of the Junior Class Play, The Fantasticks, the longest running New York musical. The play is about two fathers, neighbors, who want their children to marry. Expecting the children to rebel against their wishes, they pretend to be completely against the match and build a wall between their yards. The fathers arrange for the girl to be kidnapped. The boy springs to her rescue. They end up together, much to the happiness of the fathers.

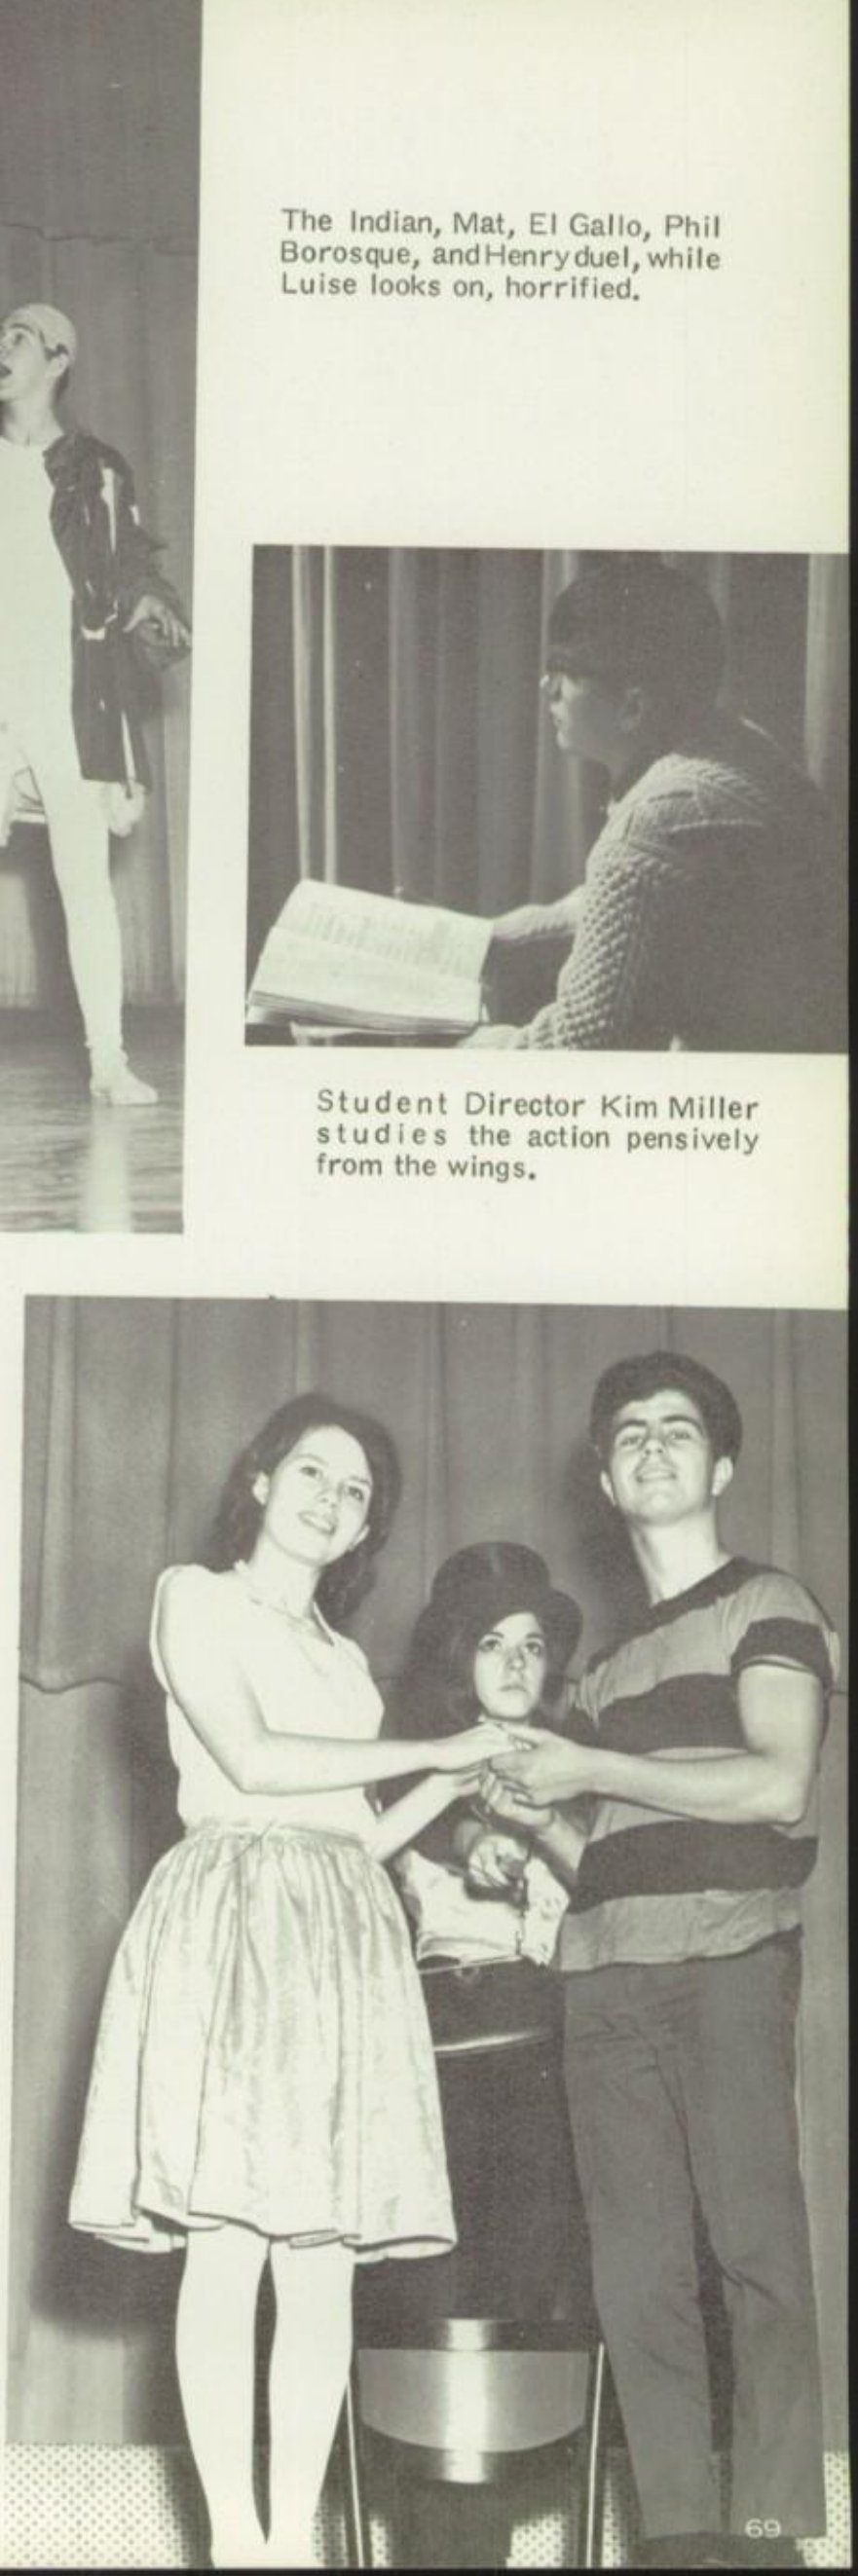
Accompanists for the musical were Steve Lewis, Sue Olenwine, and David Christensen. Mrs. Jane Scott directed the play, and Kim Miller was the student director.

The two fathers plot to force their children together.

The Indian, Mat, El Gallo, Phil Borosque, and Henry duel, while Luise looks on, horrified.

Student Director Kim Miller studies the action pensively from the wings.

Luise and Matt (Ellyn Smith and Tony Sachet) meet secretly over the wall (Zoe Pittman).



Henry (Ron Grove) and his Indian friend (Jim Baynham) prepare to do a death scene for Tony.

Riders to the Sea

Maurya pleads with her son Bartley not to leave.

Maurya relates a vision.

Central Dauphin's entry to the District Drama Festival was Synge's Riders to the Sea. The play, starring Bonnie Mowers, Suzy Miller, Pati Miles, and Mark Knouse, took second place at Districts, allowing the east to proceed to Regionals, where they also took second. From there they went to States.

Interact Alumni Night

On December 22, many alumni returned to school. Under the auspices of the Interact these alumni told the students about social life, dormitories, and other things that college catalogues don't say. The informative event was also an enjoyable social affair.

Marj Lauver and Craig Lebo tell Dennis Simmons what to expect at Indiana State.

Pat Wagner convinces Art Hoecker, Sherry Marks, Sue Briggum, Nancy Maund, and David Kehler to consider Pitt.

Prior to the individual sessions in the cafeteria, there was a general session in the library. Four alumni discussed their reactions to college, prodded by questions from Dick Sassaman, the moderator, and from the floor.

During the individual sessions, refreshments were served by the Usherettes, who were dressed in festive red.

Sally Leedy, Pat Wagner, Craig Lebo, and Dan Updegrove chat before the general session, while Dick Sassaman, Interact president, looks on.

The Man Who Came to Dinner

On April 14, the senior class play, a three-act comedy, The Man Who Came to Dinner, was presented in our auditorium. The very sophisticated, social climbing Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, played by Ed Tisdale and Kathy Ellis, persuade the very important TV personality Sheridan Whiteside, to come to their home. Sheridan, played by David Christensen, breaks his leg on the Stanley's steps and takes command of the household while recuperating. Various characters such as a butler, a floundering news editor, a professor, and a country doctor added delightful personalities to the play.

Banjo gives Miss Preen a lift.

Whiteside is warned to get off the premises.

Mr. Stanley gives his daughter the word.

Student Council

The Student Council officers were Jeff Ebersole, Vice-president; Richard Wagner, President; Alice Smith, Corresponding Secretary; Cathy Cassidy, Recording Secretary; Diane Johnson, Treasurer; Joanne Troutman, Historian.

The Student Council deals with all of the problems and suggestions the students present. Among the Council's numerous activities were the hospital fund raising, to make sure students who were in the hospital were visited and received cards, homecoming, the orientation for the freshmen, and Senior Recognition Day. This year's officers were President, Richard Wagner; Vice President, Jeffrey Ebersole; Corresponding Secretary, Alice Smith; Recording Secretary, Cathy Cassidy; Treasurer, Diane Johnson; and Historian, Joanne Troutman.

The Honor Society Officers, Diane Johnson, Treasurer; Dick Sassaman, Vice-President; Barb Nicolodi, Secretary; and Ted Knauss, President; take time off from their studies.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society boasted one hundred and twenty members. It represented five per cent of the sophomore class, ten per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class. The selections are based on four virtues - scholarship, service, leadership, and character - which the first is three-fourths of the admissions requirement and the latter three are evaluated from various faculty committees.

This club is basically an honorary society with activities that spotlight each member such as the induction ceremony, the tea for members and their parents, and a breakfast for the members.

Interact

The Interact Club with the help of advisor, Mr. Kenneth Bushman, has had a very busy year, much to the benefit of the school. Sponsored by the Colonial Park Rotary, the boys worked on such school projects as the care and transportation of Randy the Ram, ushering at Pep Rallies, organizing an alumni night for the benefit of this year's seniors, and announcing at home basketball games.

Interact also works for the community. This year, they sponsored a dance for the benefit of the Gary Hunter Fund and instituted a tutoring program.

The Interact Officers were: Dick Sassaman, President; Ron Wachtman, Treasurer; Dave Shaffer, Secretary; and Scott Jackson, Vice-President.

Ed Tisdale and Bill MacIntyre tend Randy the Ram at a football game.

Key Club Officers: Phil Drumheiser, Vice-President; Tim Archibald, President; Mr. Gutshall, Advisor; and Jeff Ebersole, Secretary, discuss some forthcoming projects.

Key Club

The busy Key Club boys spent this year serving the school and the community. Under the advisorship of Mr. Donald Gutshall, the boys ushered at assemblies, gave Christmas and Thanksgiving food baskets to needy families, and distributed canisters for Cystic Fibrosis and Muscular Dystrophy. Their money-raising projects, such as the sale of C. D. license plates, were for the purpose of attending the District Convention.

The J.C.C.'s Officers were: Sue Fleisher, Corresponding Secretary; Sue Crabbe, Treasurer; Marsha Rackliff, President; Linda Hetrick, Vice-President; Kathy Loesch, Historian; Abby Albright, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Bruckhart, Advisor.

Junior Civic Club

This year, the J.C.C.'s, with two advisors, Mrs. Cathy Dennin and Mrs. Judith Bruckhart, served the school and the community while bettering themselves through various projects and programs. The girls prepared themselves to be future club women by attending program and business meetings.

The girls sponsored such projects as Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, making Easter bunnies for the hospitals, and selling Easter Eggs to raise money.

P. R. Officers: Jack Snell, radio chairman; Carol Claar, art chairman; Kim Miller, treasurer; and Eden Alexander, news chairman, work on the scrapbook.

Public Relations Club

The Public Relations Club reports the activities of the students and faculty of Central Dauphin High to the public. The club is responsible for the articles in the Patriot News and various programs on local radio stations. In the school, they arrange the bulletin board and school directory and maintain the scrapbook to inform the students of the various activities.

Jack Snell, radio chairman; Carol Claar, art chairman, and Eden Alexander, news chairman. Miss Gundel is the faculty advisor.

Debate Club

The Central Dauphin Debate Club was one of the busiest activities and boasted of some very dedicated members and a capable advisor, Mr. Waltz. This year's topic was "Resolved: That the Foreign Aid Program of the United States should be limited to nonmilitary assistance." David Shaffer and Linda Lotz defended this position while Michael Webb and Russ Roddy took the negative position.

Library Club

The Library Club Officers, Vince Dively, vice-president; Cheryl Dinger, president; Mrs. Herre, advisor; Kim Miller, treasurer, and Kay Daihl, secretary.

The Library Club was one of our school's most important clubs, assisting Mrs. Herre with her many tasks in the library. Their duties included assisting with circulation and shelving of books.

The club sponsored money-raising projects for the purpose of sending the officers to the Southern Pennsylvania Library Assistant's Association conference at Shippensburg. This money is also used to buy a gift for the library in memory of the senior class.

Pep Club

This year's Pep Club was a large group of enthusiastic girls who spread school spirit throughout the school. The girls assisted the cheerleaders in making the colorful pep signs which adorned the cafeteria walls. They also served as a center for the cheering section at games and sparked the cheering at pep rallies.

This year's energetic officers were Diane Hawk, vice-president, Debbie Janes, president, and Donna Anderson, secretary.

Stage Crew Officers, Richard Gilbert, treasurer; John Gajdek, vice-president; and Denny Hamm, president, show Mr. Parthemore how they constructed a set.

The Stage Crew was an active group of boys who worked behind the scenes to make our many productions and assemblies a success. They operated the complicated lighting system and built the sets for various reasons. At every concert, play, and assembly, there were at least one or two members of this active group backstage, helping the production to be a success.

Audio Visual Club

The Audio-Visual Aids boys were often seen wheeling a projector around the halls or toting a screen. Under the advisorship of Mr. Border, these boys served the school, both students and teachers.

The boys gave up their study halls to run projectors for the teachers. They also operated sound systems at dances and pep rallies.

Rambler

The Business Staff: Row 1: M. Raudensky, S. Briggum, D. Gardner, A. Hawk, C. Henry, R. Roddy, S. Olenwine, P. Ehrenzeller, A. Albright, S. Tillett, J. Hughes, S. Sheaffer; Row 2: S. Jackson, P. Webb, J. Mader, J. Ickes, D. Jeffries.

The Rambler, another of our school's publications, was our official news magazine. The editorial staff members reported and wrote articles pertaining to the school. Advised by Mrs. Gray, the staff produced six fine issues.

Financial support for the Rambler was gained from advertisements and subscriptions solicited by the Business Staff. The Art Staff Members designed the clever covers on each issue.

The Art Staff: V. Snead, M. Scrignoli, J. Walker, S. Fleisher, L. Enders, C. Claar, S. Budzinak, B. Jones.

Row 2: D. Clemens, K. Ellis, C. Claar, S. Miller (editor), S. Magnuson, A. Hoppes, B. Hrenda, L. Shuey, J. Riley.

The Spectrum was a literary magazine to promote creative writing interest in our school. Anyone could submit an article, poem, or story, but it had to be approved by the editorial board, Mrs. Gray, the faculty advisor, and Suzy Miller, the editor. This was the first year that the Spectrum was published, although it was in existence for three preceeding years.

Chess Club

This year, the Chess Club was advised by Mr. Dintiman. Its members consisted not only of those who were serious or interested chess players, but also beginners who wanted to learn. Meetings consisted of friendly, but mind-taxing games, exchanging of strategy, and further learning of the game.

The Chess Club members: Row 1: B. Harper, K. Sharon; Row 2: C. Hoffman, M. McMillian; Row 3: M. Miller, M. Webb; Row 4: E. Allen, R. Grove, S. Hafner, P. Webb, study their moves carefully.

One of the busiest groups in the school was our yearbook staff. Almost every evening, one or more of the staff was at work.

The Editorial staff wrote all copy, laid out the pages, and put the yearbook together. Mr. Albright often offered his advice.

The Art Staff designed the cover and division pages, striving to carry out the theme of the yearbook.

The Business Staff sold ads to help defray the cost of the book. They also sold yearbooks to the students.

Art Staff: K. Shafranko; Carol Claar, art editor; Mr. Ziegenfus, advisor; S. Fleisher, J. Walker, M. Scrignoli.

Band

This year's band found itself busier than ever, and again served our school admirably.

The Marching Rams, who were just another fact of the football game to most C.D.-ites, showed their prowess by being selected to participate in Penn State Band Day and the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot Concert Competition. The band took first place at the Bucknell Marching Competition and an "Excellent" rating in the downtown Harrisburg Marching Contest.

The majorettes and band front worked diligently during the football season to perfect the intricate routines, choreographed by head majorette, Lynda Salada.

Several members of the band were chosen to be members of District Orchestra or District Band. Others belonged to the "Pan-Rams", the dance band, combined with East.

Would you believe that this band ...

... is this band?

Lynda Salada was our talented head majorette.

A common sight to anyone who passed the tennis courts between 8:15 and 8:45 every morning during football season.

Carol Henry, Strutter; Cheryl Williams, acrobat; and Jackie Smith, strutter, did outstanding routines to delight the crowds.

The majorettes, D. Gardner, J. Todd, B. Cousart, D. Kemmler, A. Hoppes, P. Fegan, R. Stubblefield, S. Walborn, B. Doughman, and L. Weaver, added much to our band front through their fine routines.

The Band Front: S. Hartzell, N. Williams, J. Gardner, J. Otstot, J. Porter, M. Look, and N. Allen, marched ahead of the band, carrying the colors.

Choir

The main unit of the choral department was the choir. Rehearsing 7th period every day, the 85-member vocal group learned such music as Gershwin's "Foggy Day" and the Vivaldi "Gloria".

Eight members of the choir attended District Chorus in Annville. All eight proceeded to Regional Chorus. Sue Buzzard attended All-Eastern Chorus in Boston.

The choir officers worked hard at various executive tasks, keeping the large group in tow.

Under the direction of Mrs. Irene Christman, the choir performed for several assemblies, gave two major concerts, and sang at Baccaulaureate and Graduation.

Choir Accompanists Peggy Potteiger, Steve Lewis, and Wayne Unger played piano and organ this year and helped the choir learn their songs.

Future Business Leaders of America

The F.B.L.A. was one of Central Dauphin's most active service clubs. Its main objectives were to develop competent, aggressive business leaders and to strengthen the self-confidence of its members.

Its most profitable fund raising project was the Tom-Watt Plan. Each member received a kit containing twenty articles to sell. The proceeds were donated to the Gary Hunter Fund.

Among the club's services were acting as guides for guests and new students and decorating the main bulletin boards for the various holidays.

F.B.L.A. Officers: Frank Gates, Reporter; Alice Smith, Treasurer; Karen Curtis, President; Jane Hoffman, Secretary; and Calvin Gates, Vice-President, assist in the office.

Future Homemakers of America

"Toward New Horizons." This is the appropriate motto of The Red Rose Chapter of the F.H.A. These girls who are all enrolled in the homemaking classes look towards the future and prepare for the time when they will take care of their own homes.

Members sponsor such projects as Farm Show entries, the State Convention, and community projects. The girls also sponsor a nursery school for pre-school children of faculty members.

F. H. A. Officers: Ruth Kiester, Jackie Smith, Kathy Smith, Carol Wolf.

The F.T.A. club was formed with the purpose of keeping education in first place in our school. The club strived to encourage qualities of personality and character for successful teaching and provided information about the opportunities and rewards in Education.

The various programs of the Future Teachers Club included speakers from various fields of education, college visitations, and show case displays. A breakfast was served to the faculty during National Education Week. During the school year, members of the F.T.A. participated in a teaching program by visiting classes in our school district. Our Future Teachers Club was under the advisory of Mrs. Reisinger.

Future Nurses of America

This year the Future Nurses Club worked to promote interest in the many fields of medicine. Outside services this year included: a Christmas party for the Convalescent Home, helping at the Dauphin County Tuberculos Center, being Candy-stripers, and working with the Red Cross. Along with these services the club members also donated many free periods to help Mrs. Forbes with her school duties. Miss Wilbert and Mrs. Forbes, the faculty advisors, accompanied the club on their field trip to the Geisinger Hospital in Danville. The Future Nurses ended the prosperous year with an Easter Project.

Future Nurses' officers, K. Hamill, Treasurer; D. Kemler, Corresponding Secretary; D. Herrmann, Vice President; B. King, President; C. Gates, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Forbes take a rest from their administrative duties.

Thespians

The Thespian Club was formed for the purpose of participating in and presenting school play productions. The members of this club learned the proper technique of staging, costuming, make-up, and other phases of drama.

The members of the Thespians have participated in many fine productions this year under the capable direction of Mrs. Jane Scott. The club planned numerous theatre parties to the Arena House, and other local theatres. Also, a trip was taken to New York for the purpose of seeing several theatrical productions.

The M.M.M. officers were (seated) Peggy Potteiger, Historian; Vikki Moore, President; (standing) Dick Strawser, Vice-President; and Wayne Unger, Treasurer.

Modern Music Masters

Chapter 704, the Central Dauphin Chapter of the Modern Music Masters spent a busy year. Although the organization is basically an honorary one to promote discriminating music habits, our chapter worked to promote various musical events within this year's talent show.

Boys' Intramurals

One of the most interesting and enthusiastic clubs in Central Dauphin was the Intramural Sports Club under the direction of Mr. Holp, a physical education teacher. During the school year the club pursued its purposes of developing sportsmanship and providing sports for the students not in the regular sports program. Any student in grades 10, 11, and 12 were eligible to join, except varsity sports players.

The activities participated in were flag football, soccer, basketball, wrestling, volleyball, and softball. Competitive playoffs among the teams provided the incentive for good sportsmanship.

Members met during the scheduled club periods and after school. The various activities provided relaxation and entertainment for all its members.

Rams Club

The Rams Club consisted of forty members, all former football players. The advisor was Mr. Rice. The officers were as follows: President, Tim Archibald; Vice-president, Terry Bogner; Secretary, Steve Rowe. Mr. Rice handled all of the money from their one money making project - the donkey basketball game. From the money they made, sweaters and polo shirts were bought for the club members and a trip to the Penn State - Syracuse football game was taken.

The Distributive Education Club, advised by Mr. Magara, provided Senior students with the opportunity to participate in various learning phases of retailing. This year's club participated in State and National competitions. One of the club's most apparent contributions to the school was the efficient school store.

Food Prep Club

The Food Prep Club, advised by Mr. Baker, was one of the most active and efficient clubs at Central Dauphin. The club members were responsible for the cafeteria including meals and a-la-carte line. They also planned refreshments for many social functions. The club met frequently to plan food menus and preparations. There were meetings designed especially for industrial representations and lectures to give the students new and improved ideas in food preparation.

The senior club members attended a convention at which time many were interviewed for jobs. They also furthered their know-how in food ideas and menu preparation.

A renewed team spirit and the determination to bounce back strongly, after disappointing games, led the Rams to a 5-5 season.

After losing to Cedar Cliff and Lebanon, via second half passing attacks, the Rams came home to smash Lancaster and break a new game losing streak. Denny Simmons ran for 3 TDs behind the trapping of guards Bob Conley and Steve Black. Fred Minchoff's blocked punt and a long pass from Gary Mendenhall to Terry Bognar led to a much wanted victory over Steel-Hi. John Harris, the number one team in the state, proved too much for C. D., while the loss to William Penn was the low point of the season. The Ram defense stopped the strong York Bearcat attack as Dale Johnson's sensational catch with 4 seconds to go provided one of the biggest upsets of the year. John Blosser's diving catch to set up the first TD and George Noss's 75-yard run with a Blosser-caused fumble highlighted the Homecoming win over arch-rival East as the RAM 'EM defense again led the way. The long trip to Williamsport was a disappointment as the Rams could not get down out of the cloud after their two big wins. Needing a win over Reading to break even, QB Tom Thompson's running, ball handling and passing to Tim Archibald led a three TD second half performance to provide the Parents' Night crowd with a happy ending to a season which could be entitled "The Rebirth of the Rams".

Coaches: G. Livelsberger, T. King, B. Rice, R. Minnick, M. Johnson.

Trainers: B. Rudy, G. "Speed" Ebersole, R. Minnick.

The head coach is the most important man on the field and this year the most important man is Bob Rice. Coach Rice attended Penn State University where he played center on the varsity squad. This year C.D. has two backfield coaches; Bob Minnick and Meade Johnson. Coach Minnick is new at C.D. but Coach Johnson certainly is not. In 1962 Coach Johnson quarterbacked an undefeated Rams' team. Also new this year is Coach Glenn Livelsberger, who graduated from Millersville State College and is now teaching at Lower Paxton Junior High School. Coach Livelsberger coaches the offensive ends and the defensive backs. Coach King, line coach, has been coaching at C.D. for the past four years. He feels this year marked the "REBIRTH OF THE RAMS".

Season Remarks

The Central Dauphin basketball team made quite an impression on everyone this year. Never a threat in previous years, the Rams went all the way in '67 to capture the Central Penn Championship. The winning ingredients of this year's well-balanced team were the sharp-shooting talents of Dick Wagner and Ted Knauss, the rebounding of Charlie Harvey and Phil Libby, the great defense of Allan Rafferty, and the fine direction of Coach Thorn. The team opened the season with seven straight wins before losing to Lebanon. These victories included Dallastown, Susquehanna, Bishop McDevitt, Middletown, York, Cedar Cliff, and William Penn. After Lebanon, the Rams bounced back to gain four more against Steel-High, Lancaster, East, and John Harris. In the rivalry game with our sister school, the team soundly defeated East with a 29 point margin. We lost our final first-half game to Reading by a field goal and were forced to play a tie-breaker with York for the first half championship. On January 27, C.D. hosted the Bearcats at the Farm Show Arena. After a tie at half-time, Dick Wagner broke open the game with a fantastic display of outside shooting. When York's defense shifted to guard Wagner, Knauss took charge of our scoring machine and we won by a 14 point margin.

Starting the second half play at York, the Rams dropped a game to the team which they had won the first half championship from only four days before. Moving to homecourts and victory, the team defeated Cedar Cliff by one point in a cliff-hanger of a game highlighted by much accurate outside shooting by both teams. The next game was at Camp Curtin Junior High, where we lost to William Penn. Lebanon at home was a different story. Harvey and Libby controlled the tall men and the boards while Ted Knauss hit consistently and avenged our first half loss to the Cedars. Away again, the Rams lost to Steel-High, a new threat in the second half, but returned to defeat Lancaster, East, John Harris, and Reading, ending the second half with a 6-3 record. In the East game, school scoring records were broken by Dick Wagner (41 points) and the Rams (96 points) as Wags hit on 16 field goals and 9 straight foul shots. At Harris and home with Reading, the team reaffirmed their winning style and ended the regular season with a 17-5 record, the finest ever at CD.

The class of '69 provided a dozen of the finest basketball players in years for Coach Richard Holp to mold into an outstanding team. And that's just the way it happened. The little Rams, just as the varsity, won an upper berth in league standings. Led by the accurate shooting of team captain Chuck Weschitz and guard Doug Clelan, the fine ball handling and floor coordination of Larry Jones, the great defensive effort and hustle of Ethan Lock, the fine rebounding and second shots of Kevin Kuhla and Doug Whitney, plus the dependable relief work of Orville Dixon and Terry Varner, the JV's compiled a record of 17-5. Excellent prospects for the next two years are in sight for CD basketball teams and we're proud to shout it.

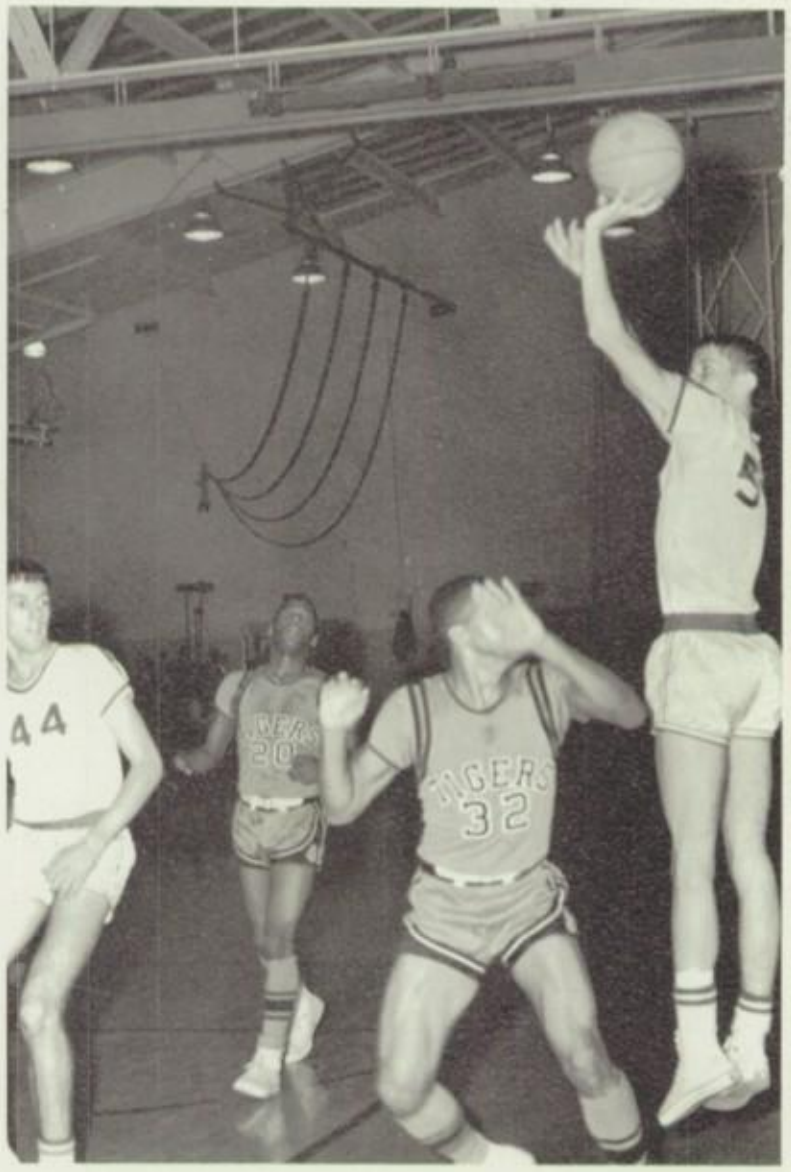
Central Penn Champs

In what was probably the most exciting game of the whole year, Central Dauphin defeated York at the Farm Show Arena 47-46 to win the Central Penn Championship for 1967. This gave us the privilege to continue in play-off action for the district title.

District 3 Champs

At Hershey, the Rams beat Dallastown by the score of 64-50. Ted Knauss's 23 points, plus the perfect shooting of Phil Libby, who didn't miss a shot the whole game, put CD into the district finals. Now only Carlisle remained between CD and the District 3, Class A Championship. In the first half of the game at Hershey, control of the boards made up for a faltering offense, but the score was 27-25 in favor of Carlisle at the intermission. After half-time, however, the Rams' offense began to make itself felt. Dick Wagner started pouring in his outside shots and Al Rafferty continued to be "all over the place", stealing and scoring like a one-man team. Finally, in the fourth quarter, the team gained a four point lead with thirty seconds left. In a franctic effort to steal the now-frozen ball, Carlisle left Rick Kershaw momentarily unguarded under the basket, where he scored the final two points after a pass from outside to make the score 61-55, Central Dauphin.



Co-captains Wagner and Harvey exhibit the winning style which got CD to the play-offs.

Harriers Win Central Penn

Front row: J. Fowl, R. Coleman, co-capt.; A. Hipple, co-capt.; D. Bitner, D. Weitzenhoffer. Back row: Coach Brunner, J. Steimling, R. Weimer, P. Gavenonis, G. Ditto, K. Gingrich.

Coach John Brunner and co-captains Al Hipple and Bob Coleman led the varsity harriers to an undefeated season and the Central Penn Championship.

One of the year's highlights was the meet ending John Harris' four-year win streak. Bob Coleman's first place finish with Al Hipple, Keith Gingrich, and John Fowl placing fifth thru eighth, gave CD the meet and the championship title.

At the District meet in Reading, the Central Dauphin team came in fourth. Bob Coleman, by finishing in the top six runners, earned a trip to compete in the State Championships at Penn State on November 5. Bob finished twentieth among the finest runners in the state.

J.V. Coach O'Bara and Varsity Coach Kreamer watch the action as C.D.'s "Mat-men" win another. Coach Kreamer has developed a fine group of wrestlers throughout the years by his own individual desire and skill. Coach O'Bara joined the coaching staff this year and has done an outstanding job with the J.V. squad.

The 1966-67 Central Dauphin wrestling team compiled an improved record from the year before, with a 7-7 record in overall matches and a very commendable third place in Section 2 of the Harrisburg Area Wrestling League. Three outstanding seniors led the team to a fine record. Phil Drumheiser, 138, and Tom Strohm, 165, were co-captains of the team. Phil's records was 9-2-1, seeded third in his weight class, and Tom's record was 6-4-3, being seeded second in his respective weight class. Senior Russ Young, wrestling unlimited, ran up the best record among the wrestlers with an 11-4-1 record. In a rough weight class, he was seeded fourth in Section 2. Coach Kreamer guided the team to a successful year with nine returning lettermen, and with an excellent JV team to back the Varsity squad, prospects are even better for next year.

Debby Janes, Captain.

This year's spirited and hardworking cheerleading squads greeted sadly the close of the sport year. Twenty-four girls made up the Central Dauphin cheerleading club and for the first time a Taxi Squad was organized. These girls proudly represented their school at all sports events. With equal pride Central Dauphin recognized the three cheerleading squads.

The Varsity Squad was headed by Debby Janes. Other seniors on the squad were Linda Hetrick, Diane Johnson, Cathy Cassidy, Emily Buck, and Peggy Hildebrand. Junior members were JoAnn Trautman and JoAnn Pelligrini.

The co-captains of the varsity squad this year were Kathy Loesch, senior, and Geri Greenfield, senior. The other senior members of the squad were: Karen Shaffer, Elizabeth Hrenda, Helen Long, Sandy Graybill, Linda Busler, and Donna Shenk.

The scorers for the season were: Debbie Kreiser, junior, three goals (one in the Carlisle game and two in the East Pennsboro game); Kathie Marden, sophomore, three goals (one each in the Carlisle, Camp Hill and Cedar Cliff games); and Geri Greenfield, senior, (one in the Carlisle game).

The Varsity coaches were, Mrs. Bittle and Miss Kerstetter. The team managers were Anita Bricker and Barb Oringer.

The highlights of the Varsity season were in the Cedar Cliff and Camp Hill games, where the winning goals were scored in the last three minutes of play.

The Varsity record for the season is 3-6-2 with much improvement shown in the last half of the season.

The Ramettes Coaches, Mrs. Bittle and Miss Kerstetter.

Mrs. Bittle and Miss Kerstetter brought much experience and skill into their coaching positions for the Girls' Hockey Team. Both had played hockey in high school and in college.

Mrs. Bittle's comments of the season were "Our season started out slow, but as the girls' worked hard and spent many long hours practicing, we ended up with a much improved team."

Miss Kerstetter's comments were "We are intending that this year be considered a building season and that with the experience acquired this past year, a better season will be had. The highlight of the season was the great improvement of the team, resulting from long, strenuous practice."

Both coaches feel that coaching the girls was a tremendous experience.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

The Varsity Ramettes, under the able coaching of Miss Nancy Wilbert, had a 4-10 season. The team's main trouble seemed to be that they always ran out of time. They lost most of their hard fought games by 2 and 3 points in the closing minutes of the games. However, in a few games the Ramettes were definitely defeated. The girls practiced every day either in the evening or after school, and it takes a dedicated athlete to stick with the grind.

Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball

And the game begins !!!

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team under the coaching of Miss Monaghan ended the season with a 2-13 record. Many of the girls on the team were sophomores that lacked experience, however their spirits are high for next year. These girls exhibited good sportsmanship at all times. They also posses many other qualities that are necessary in an athlete. The Varsity Coach, Miss Wilbert, hopes to develop these girls to their fullest ability in their future playing years at Central Dauphin High School.

The efforts of the Central Dauphin Baseball Team under the coaching of Don Ross put the Rams in second place in the Lower Dauphin Baseball League. C.D.'s overall record was 11 wins and 14 loses. Scores as follows; East, -0 and 4-5; Susquehanna, 7-0 and 4-7; Lower Dauphin, 4-1 and 2-1; Middletown, 6-0 (Bob Cassel's no hitter); Bishop Mc Devitt, 4-3 and 4-3; Boiling Springs, 9-0.

The Rams' leading batters were Bob Cassel with a .397 and Butch Polm with a .340. Two of our pitchers won 9 of the 11 wins; Gary Mendenhall (4-1) and Bob Cassel (5-2). The CENTRALIAN wishes the team of 1967 the best of luck.

Track

Barry Helwig easily clears the bar as Bob Adkins and Ron Miller look on.

This year's track team consisted of forty-one energetic boys under the capable coaching of Coach Kutney and Coach O'Bara. This crew practiced and worked hard after school each day, not necessarily becoming a highly successful team; however, they did show much improvement but most important the track experience gave each boy an opportunity to achieve the value of good sportsmanship and physical prowness. The CENTRALIAN hopes the 1967 track team has a very successful season.

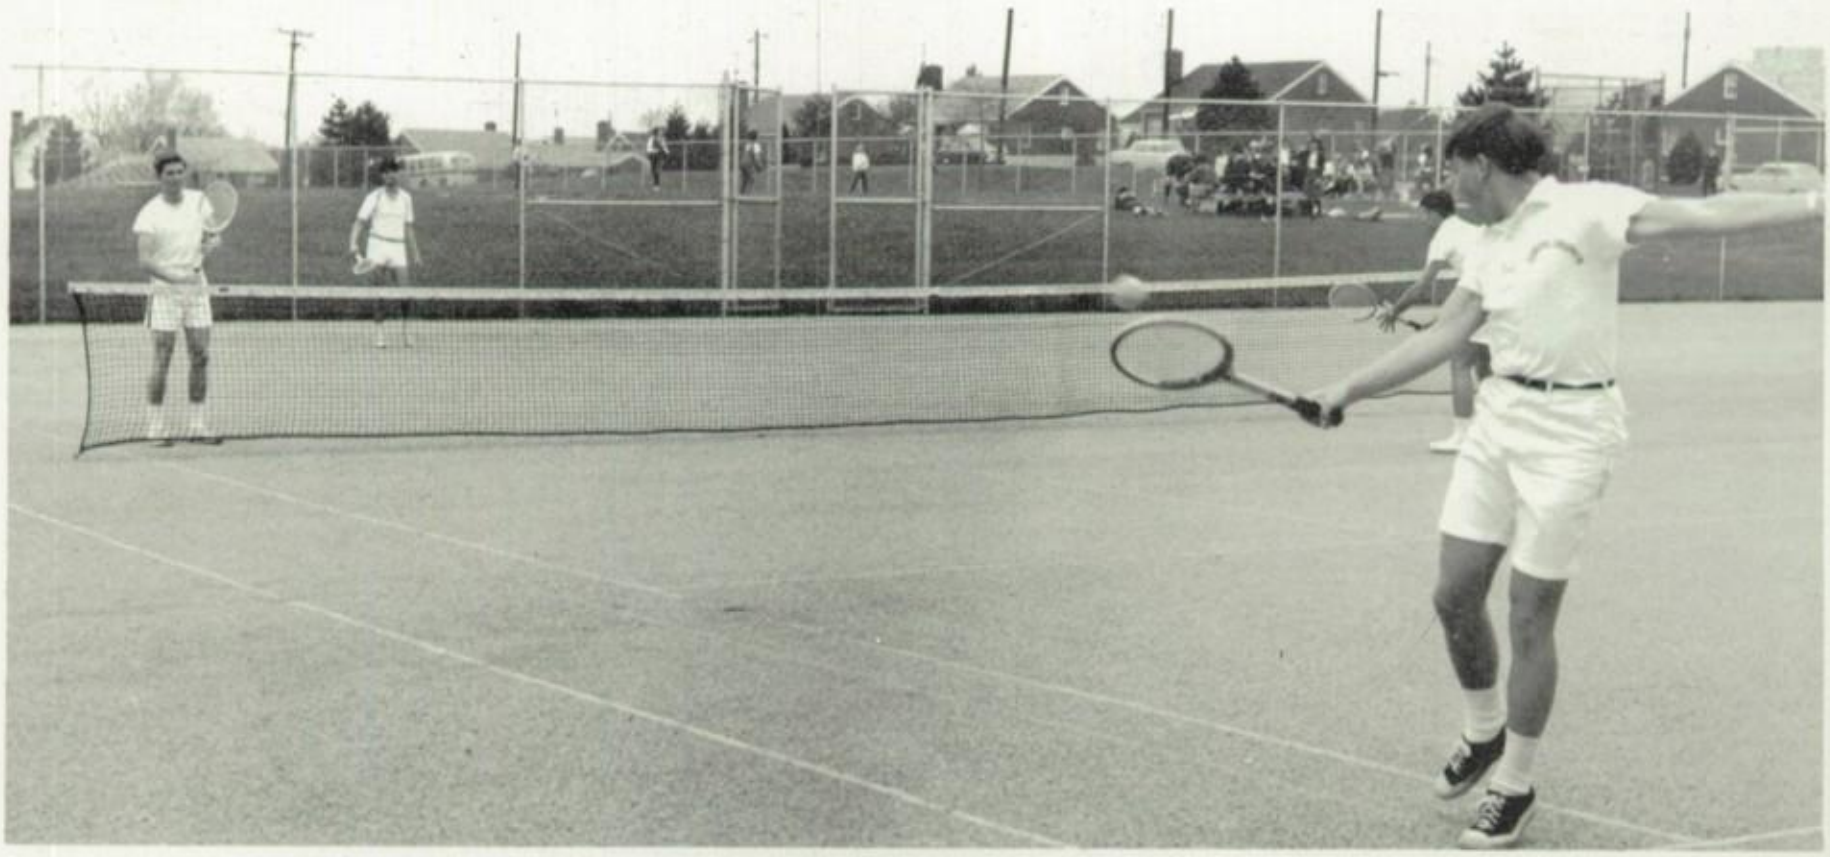
Kneeling: G. Miller, B. Harper, D. Jeffries, B. Phillips. Standing: T. Kuhn, B. Kerstetter, B. Strutt, D. Updegrove, J. Olenwine, J. Ebersole.

Central Dauphin's Tennis team had an unsuccessful season in 1966. Winning their opener 4-3 against East, they dropped the remainder of their matches, many of them by very slim margins. One of the best efforts by the Rams was at York, when the score came up 4-3, York being the winner, but only after a hard-fought match.

A new coach, Mr. Shapiro, is aiming at an improvement over last year's 1-9 season and the Ram's tennis prospects this year look to be equal to the task. So best of luck to the coaches and players in the season which starts April 13, 1967.



J. Olenwine, B. Kerstetter, D. Updegrove, and B. Strutt practice for a doubles match.

Softball

The girl's Softball Squad, coached by Miss Nancy Wilbert, consisted of twenty-two capable and energetic girls and three managers. The girls practiced after school every day, not necessarily becoming a highly successful team but improving their skills. The co-captains were Judy Lenker, Dot Landis, and Judy Brehm. The managers were Sandy Graybill, Sue Steele and Barb Stitt.

As editor of the Centralian, I would like to give this space as a small tribute to the people who made this book a reality.

My staff who continued to work under the pressures of deadlines.

My advisors, Mr. Albright and Mr. Ziegenfus, who offered their cooperation and time to help with this book.

Walsworth Publishing Company and their representative, Bill Monteith, for technical help in the preparation of the Centralian.

Ensminger's Studio and especially Mr. Fred Hauber who took all the pictures in this book.

The editors who helped by preparing sections of outstanding quality.

The students of Central Dauphin whose cooporation in all fields has made this book more than another annual, but the story of 1966-1967 at their school.

Dear Senior,

You entered Central Dauphin as an inquisitive, curious, and slightly nervous sophomore. You leave Central Dauphin as a Senior full of wisdom, knowledge, and courage; ready to face the world as a young adult.

I hope these three years at Central Dauphin have proved to be adventurous, fun, and fulfilling to you, for your years have been filled with many wonderful experiences and opportunities.

You, as a member of the senior class, have been the main link in the chain of events which has passed through the halls of C.D., and with your help and enthusiasm, these events have made the class of '67 the best ever!

As you leave the familiar halls of C.D., I hope you put your knowledge and wisdom to good use, for it is you who will decide the fate of our generation.

May you have sucess, life, and luck in all you undertake, and never forget the three short years of your life which started as a sophomore and ended as a member of the class of 1967!

The Rose Still Grows Beyond the Wall

Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier heights,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride.
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before;
And lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fail?
Nay! Let faith and hope receive:
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will for evermore.
